27 years

BACKGROUND

Mamta's contagious smile is something you'd first notice about her. A woman with a sociable nature and lively personality, she can ease anyone into an amusing conversation full of all kinds of beauty tips and advice. A former beautician herself, before the attack Mamta ran a small beauty parlour on her own. Along with beauty treatments, Mamta would also give aspiring beauticians training there. Mamta is a natural when it comes to make-up and picking up other skills imperative in the beauty industry. She is a self-confessed fashion enthusiast and derives most of her inspiration from reading Bollywood magazines and watching TV serials. Given the right guidance and training Mamta has a strong potential to make a mark in the beauty and fashion industry.

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Took a beauty training course at a local beauty parlour 2003-2005
Here, she trained in all the basic skills required like hair-cutting and styling, waxing and threading, manicure and pedicure, face massage, face clean-up and bleaching etc. Alongside, she used her strong entrepreneurial skills and developed a strong client base by providing home beauty treatments.
- Worked at a local garment store 2007-2008
Mamta's interest in clothes and fashion got her a job at a local garment shop, where she learnt to stitch ladies and kid's garments. She worked here on a daily wage basis and used this job as an additional source of income.
- Worked as an employee at a local parlour for six months 2007
Mamta decided to use her newly-developed skills to get herself a job at a local parlour. She worked here as an employee for six months and provided waxing, threading, hair cutting, manicure pedicure, face clean-up and other beauty treatments.
- Opened her own beauty parlour on a partnership basis 2007-2008
After honing her skills and gaining enough experience and training, Mamta along with her friend went on a joint venture to open their own parlor. They provided all kinds of beauty services and even trained girls to become beauticians.
