BACKGROUND

Just one conversation with Sapna and you'll see she has the spirit of a fighter. A confident and graceful woman who's fought for her rights, Sapna doesn't want to be sympathised with. She believes in 'survival of the fittest'. So whatever opportunity comes her way she grabs them with both hands, and makes the most of it. A hard worker as well as a smart worker, Sapna is born to be a leader. She has fought her battles on her terms and is married happily to a man who truly loves her.
